Dear John:

This will introduce Dr. Heinrich Kronstein, a member of the law faculty of Georgetown University and an officer of the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice. We have worked closely with Dr. Kronstein for over a period of two years, and he has made many valuable contributions to our work, since he is one of the foremost authorities on cartels and cartel law. I believe you, and perhaps other members of Mr. Murphy's staff, will be interested in consulting with him on such subjects as you may deem appropriate.

Sincerely yours,

Robert P. Terrill
Acting Chief
Commodities Division

Mr. John W. Tuthill,
Office of the United States
Political Adviser on
German Affairs,
