MEMORANDUM CONCERNING RESEARCH FELLOWS

1. Dr. Horst Kaufmann.

Dr. Kaufmann prepares a study of certain historical interrelationships between the Anglo-American contract law, especially theory of the implied contract, and the development of Roman law. For this purpose he reads Granville in Latin and large chapters of Bracton. He has made substantial extracts of the notebook of Bracton.

During the next weeks he will definitely set the scope of his study.

2. Dr. Horst Brucher.

Dr. Brucher is engaged in the study of the Federal Trade Commission. He has spent his time in studying the procedural aspects of the Commission in comparison with corresponding European institutions.

3. Dr. Kurt H. Biedenkopf.

Dr. Biedenkopf is participating in our study on international cartels. He made a thorough study of the extraterritorial effect of antitrust law and will during the next few months go into other aspects of the problems of international cartels. Also he will set the definite scope of his study very soon.
