MEMORANDUM TO DEAN PAUL DEAN
DEAN KEN FYE

Re: Organization of our Institute

Some time ago in the presence of Dean Paul Dean we discussed the establishment of an executive committee of our Institute composed of former graduates of our Institute and the directors or associate directors of the Institute.

The following persons help in the preparation of our new organization: John Miller, Ed Bradley, Till Neuner, Jan Kaczmarek, John F. Kennedy, Thomas James. A preliminary draft of the rules of an Association of Friends of the Institute has been prepared. However, some special points are not clarified yet.

However, I ask you for the permission to use the members of our preliminary committee to represent the Georgetown Institute or the Georgetown Law Center in the committees preparing the next conferences with the Federal Bar Association.

By this method we can become much more effective. I ask for your formal authorization to do so.
