Professor Dr. Hermann Mosler
Berlinerstrasse 48
69 Heidelberg 1
Germany

Dear Professor Mosler:

Professors Kronstein and Jaenicke have both told me of your extremely kind invitation to speak in Heidelberg on May 10, and I very much look forward to the occasion. The subject of our separation of powers in foreign policy is a very broad one, and, as I have written to Professor Jaenicke, to whose seminar I will be speaking on May 11, I may in my initial talk address myself to only one aspect of the matter, e.g., commerce, the war power, diplomatic functions, or the appropriations power. My prior experience has been that one can try to cover too much in one talk. I would of course be happy to answer questions with respect to the entire area after the talk. I do not know how much time you will allot to me; I will assume one hour for the talk (apart from questions), unless you suggest otherwise. I appreciate your permitting me to speak in English and apologize that my German is not sufficient. I very much look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely yours,

bcc: Dr. Kronstein
