

THE LEGAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN AMERICAN PARENT CORPORATIONS AND THEIR FOREIGN SUBSIDIARIES

—A Symptom of Anarchy in International Law and Conflict of Laws

By

HEINRICH KRONSTEIN

LL.B., Columbia Law School, 1939

J.D., University of Berlin, 1925

A thesis submitted to the Committee on Graduate Study of the Law School of Georgetown University in part satisfaction of the requirements for the degree of Scientiae Juris Doctor.

8/1/40

07944

COPYRIGHT, 1940

BY

THE SCHOOL OF LAW, GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

CONTENTS

	Page
Table of Cases	iv
Table of Law Review Articles	vii
Table of Books	viii
CHAPTER I	1
Subsidiaries Abroad: A Historical And Economic Introduction.
CHAPTER II	22
The Parent-Subsidiary Relationship and the State.
CHAPTER III	51
The Parent-Subsidiary Relationship and Conflict of Laws.	